Due to the numerous requests for a repetition of the five hundred party given several weeks ago at the home of Mrs. Thomas A. Cowan which is still fresh in the minds of the many who attended, Carson Street Parent Teachers' Association were hosts at a similar affair on Saturday night, at Julian Hall, in the Julian Headquarters building on Main street here which was obtained through the courtesy of M. V. Moulton, superintendent of the Julian tank farm. Twelve tables of five hundred and one table of bridge were played, attracting the attention of the majority present for the first part of the evening followed by dancing with music furnished by Elwood Nahmens and his "Gloom Chasers."

Refreshments of delicious coffee (notated) and served by Mr. and Mrs. Charles King of Main street and home-made cake was served. Prizes were awarded for the winners in five hundred as follows: First, Mrs. Charles Winston, and Otto Sampson; second, Mrs. Charles H. Pierce and Charles Phillips; consolation, Mrs. Walter Phillips and Sammie C. Sault; the door prize being won by Mrs. Harry C. Roque. With profusions of lovely flowers from the gardens of C. A. Brazeo, florist, Mrs. Barbara Berry and J. S. Sleppy forming a colorful setting one section of the hall was transformed into a reception room with the soft strains of music coming over the air from a radio furnished by Mr. DeBra of Torrance for the occasion, while another section was devoted to the children who played games and won prizes during the evening. Ice cream, soda pop, and popcorn was on sale. Under the direction of the committees in charge, the affair was a splendid social and financial success, about one hundred people being in attendance.
